PRESENT,

The Queen's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHereas Her Majeſty was graciouſly pleaſed by an Order in Council of the 24th of June laſt, upon Information that the City of Hamburgh, and other Places without the Sound, were entirely free from the Plague, or any other Contagious Diſtemper, to Order, That the Quarentine ſhould be taken off from all Ships or Veſſels coming from the ſaid City of Hamburgh, and Places without the Sound; but it appearing by late Advices from thence, that the Plague is again broke out at Gluckſtadt, and the ſpreading thereof being apprehended in the neighbouring Towns and Places. Her Majeſty taking the ſame into Her Royal Conſideration, is pleaſed, with the Advice of Her Privy Council, to Order, as it is hereby Ordered, That the ſaid Order of the 24th of June laſt be revoked and made void; and that all Ships and Veſſels coming from the Baltick Sea, and other Ports and Places without the Sound, ſhall perform their Quarentine in ſuch manner as is directed by Her Majeſty's Royal Proclamation and Order in Council of the 6th of December laſt, in that behalf; and the Right Honourable the Lord High Treaſurer of Great Britain, the Commiſſioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral, Her Majeſty's Secretary at War, the Maſter of Her Majeſty's Ordnance, and all others whom it may Concern, are to take Notice hereof, and to give the neceſſary Directions herein, as to them may reſpectively appertain.

Edward Southwell.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Plymouth, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir George Byng, one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord High Treaſurer.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Magiſtrates, Common-Council, and other Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Plymouth in the County of Devon.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign!

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, beg leave to render to Your Majeſty our moſt unfeigned Thanks for Your great and unprecedented Condeſcenſion, expreſſed in Your late moſt gracious Speech from the Throne, whereby You have been pleaſed to give Your People ſuch well-grounded Hopes of their ſoon having that which ſhould be the ſatisfying, as well as propoſed End of every juſt War, A Safe and Honourable Peace. We acknowledge this ought to be eſteemed among the very choiceſt and moſt kindly Fruits of Your ever Victorious Arms, and wiſe Counſels; A Bleſſing great in it ſelf, but yet enhanſed and made greater by Your Majeſty's concerning Care for ſecuring the Hanover Succeſſion, the only humane Means of making this Peace as laſting as it is like to be good.

That Your Majeſty's Reign over us may continue as Long and Proſperous, as it hath been hitherto Glorious: And that You may, for Your Peoples good, late enjoy that Bleſſedneſs which Truth it ſelf hath promiſed to the Peace Makers, is the hearty Deſire of Your Majeſty's ever Loyal and moſt Dutiful Subjects and Servants.

The following Addreſs from the Burgh of Dundie, was preſented to Her Majeſty by John Carnegy, Eſq; being introduced by the Rt Hon. the Lord Viſcount Bolingbroke, One of Her Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and moſt Loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Bailiffs, Dean of Gild, and Common-Council of Your Royal Burgh of Dundie, beg leave to approach Your Majeſty, heartily Rejoicing for the Signal Succeſſes given to Your Majeſty's Arms, and to Your Wiſe and Prudent Counſels, ſo as thereby to bring about a Treaty, for putting an End to the preſent, long, and expenſive War. And with the deepeſt Gratitude to acknowledge Your Majeſty's great Condeſcenſion, in communicating to Your People the Terms on which Peace is propoſed.

The Zeal and Loyalty to Your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, fixed in the Hearts of Your Subjects, by repeated Inſtances of Your Royal good Will and Favour towards them, and on ſeveral Occaſions profeſſed by them, ſince Your Majeſty's happy Acceſſion to the Throne, muſt ſtill take deeper Root, and more and more expreſs it ſelf from a due Senſe of Your tender Care, in ſeeking chiefly, and purſuing ſteadily, the Honour and Intereſt of Your People: And there can be nothing more ſatisfying and agreeable to us, than to obſerve Your Concern for Religion, and the Succeſſion in the Proteſtant Line.

As Your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Prudence are moſt Conſpicuous hitherto, in the Progreſs of the Treaty of Peace, ſo we entirely depend upon Your Majeſty, to bring the ſame to a final Concluſion, and thereby to diſappoint the Deſigns of thoſe whoſe Delight and Intereſt is in War. Nothing doubting of Your Majeſty's being able, by the Bleſſing of God, to accompliſh what may be juſtly demanded for the Honour, Trade and real Advantage of Your Majeſty's Dominions.

That Your Majeſty may long live to enjoy the Fruits of Your Princely Care and pious Concern, for the Eaſe and Welfare of Your People, in a proſperous and peaceable Reign, is, and ſhall ſtill be the hearty and ſincere Prayers of, May it pleaſe Your Majeſty, Your Majeſty's moſt Loyal, moſt Dutiful, and moſt Obedient Subjects and Servants.

The following Addreſs from the Borough and Corporation of Rippon, was preſented to Her Majeſty by John Aiſlabie and John Sharpe, Eſqs. their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord High Treaſurer.

To

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Assistants of the Corporation and Borough of Rippon, in the County of York, and of several Gentlemen and Borough-holders of the said Borough.

May it please Your Majesty,

THE great Condescension of your Majesty, in laying before your Parliament the Terms upwhich you have proceeded to make a general Peace for your Subjects and Allies, deserves the humblest Expressions of Gratitude and Acknowledgment from us, and all your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects.

When we reflect on your Majesty's Great and Princely Care to ease your Subjects of a long and expensive War, by procuring them an honourable and safe Peace, notwithstanding all the Difficulties and Obstructions that have attended the same, and the many repeated Instances your Majesty hath given your People in your late most gracious Speech from the Throne, and at other times, of your Royal Intention and fixed Resolution to secure to them and their Posterity, the Injoyment of the best of Religions, and an established Succession of Protestant Princes in the House of Hanover; we cannot sufficiently admire your Majesty's great Goodness, nor express our Thanks, in Terms equal to the tender regard you have shewn, for the welfare of your Subjects.

We are, Madam, so assured of your affectionate Care for your People, that we solely and absolutely depend on your Majesty for the perfecting these your Royal Intentions, by a glorious and lasting Peace; and humbly desire your Majesty to finish that great and good Work, by such Ways and Methods, as your Majesty shall judge most conducive thereunto.

The following Address from the Borough of Tamworth, was presented to Her Majesty by Mr. Serjeant Girdler and Samuel Bracebridge, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Shrewsbury, Lord Chamberlain of Her Majesty's Houshold.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Recorder, Deputy Steward, Town Clerk, Capital Burgesses, Gentlemen, Clergy, and other the Inhabitants of the ancient Borough of Tamworth, in the Counties of Warwick and Stafford.

May it please your most gracious Majesty,

THE welcome Tidings of Peace, you are pleased to communicate to your People, sound to all your good and loyal Subjects, as pleasing News from Heaven; and you appear to us, under the beauteous Character of the peaceful Angel of this blessed Message; such condescending Goodness, tempered with such awful Majesty, looks like mild Heaven, softly reminding Rebel Mortals of Grace undeserved.

Peace, even by the Enemies to Peace, is the acknowledged Constitution of Heaven; Peace is yours only to give, that derive your Authority from those peaceful Regions.

Those that are for the inverted Scheme of Power, plainly shew by their Fruits, whence they draw their Spirits; a Spirit that breaths Confusion, infernal Discord, Rapine and Bloodshed; the Spirit that plainly works in disobedient Children.

Your Goodness, next under Heaven, gives us this inestimable Blessing; your Wisdom (humanly speaking) insures it to our Posterity; the Seeds of War, that are secretly sown in Peace (beyond what is necessary for the preservation of your own People) you do not cherish: Trade is a sly and silent War; but however silent and stealing it is, the over-balance of it, in its time, makes equal Noise and Confusion with the over-balance of Dominion and Power, which you have tempered so, as that we shall not wantonly disturb our Neighbour's Rest, nor yet fear from them the disturbance of our own; a Caution long neglected, and reserved for your prudent and just Administration.

May your pious Cares and Anxieties for your People, be crowned with a compleat and universal Peace Abroad; and with the filial Regard and Reverence of all your own Subjects at Home; that you and your People, this great and mighty People, may become a Pattern for Imitation, and a Blessing to all the Ends of the Earth.

The following Address from the Borough of Cirencester, was presented to Her Majesty by Thomas Master and Charles Coxe, Esqs; their two Representatives, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Beaufort.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Ancient Borough of Cirencester, in the County of Glouceſter.

Madam,

THE tender Care and Affection Your Majesty has always shewn to Your People, obliges us to make such grateful Acknowledgements, as Minds like ours, deeply sensible of the greatest Benefits, cannot but express: But at this time more especially, for the great Condescension Your Majesty has lately shewn, in communicating to Your Parliament the Terms upon which a General Peace may be made.

'Tis with the utmost Satisfaction that we now see a Queen of Great Britain, become the Arbiter of Europe; and Exerting her self in such a manner as will not only procure to these Nations, present Honour and Advantage, but must of Necessity render Your Auspicious Reign remarkably Famous to latest Posterity, in spite of all the Impotent Efforts of Envy and Detraction.

As we have an Entire Confidence in Your Majesty's steadily pursuing the true Interest and Welfare of Your Kingdoms, so we humbly intreat Your Majesty to go on in the perfecting so good a Work, which (notwithstanding the many Difficulties and Obstructions that have arisen from the subtle and pernicious Artifices of designing and ungrateful Men) has hitherto been successfully carried on, as much to their Confusion, as to Your Majesty's Honour, and the general Good of all Your Allies.

We humbly beg leave farther to assure Your Majesty, that we shall be always ready, to the utmost of our Power, to defend and support Your Royal Person and Prerogative, against all those who shall any way dare to insult the one, or invade the other.

The following Address from the Borough of Monmouth, was presented to Her Majesty by Clayton Milborn, Esq; their Representative in Parliament, and John Stratford, Esq; their Recorder, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Beaufort.

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Bailiffs, Common-Council and Burgesses of the Borough of Monmouth, in the County of Monmouth.

May it please Your Majesty,

WHen we consider, that after a tedious and expensive War, nothing is more desired, nothing is more welcome than Peace, we think our selves bound, by the strictest Obligations of Duty, to shew that we are truly sensible, how much we owe to Your Majesty, by whose wise Administration,

France

France is brought to offer Terms, upon which a Peace may be made; and we do most thankfully acknowledge Your gracious Condescension, in communicating them to Your Parliament.

We are fully perswaded that Your Majesty hath nearest at Heart, the transmitting to Posterity our most Holy Religion, by assuring the Succession (as by Law Established) in the House of Hanover, and that You will firmly pursue the true Interest of Your People, and not omit any thing whereby you may obtain just and reasonable Satisfaction to all Your Allies.

And we heartily pray, that (to the disappointment of all those who are Enemies to Great Britain, or who out of Faction, Envy or private Designs, contrive Difficulties to hinder the good Work which your Majesty has begun) God will prosper your Majesty's Endeavours with Success, and grant that your Majesty may long Reign in Peace, over most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

The following Address from the Borough or Town of Kingston upon Hull, was presented to Her Majesty by Sir William St. Quintin, Bart. and Edward Barnerd, Esq;

To the QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, Chamberlains, and Capital Burgesses of Your Majesty's Town or Borough of Kingston upon Hull.

May it please Your Majesty,

TO permit us, among Your dutiful and loyal Subjects, to return our most sincere and grateful Acknowledgments for the high Favour of acquainting both Your Houses of Parliament, how far You have transacted a well designed, glorious and firm Peace for Your British Subjects and all Your Allies, though Peace and War are Your indisputed Prerogative.

We can never sufficiently admire Your fervent Affection, in having nothing more at Your Royal Heart (which is entirely English*) than an inviolable Security of the Protestant Succession in the Serene House of* Hanover, as by Law Established.

We owe the greatest Thanks to Your Sacred Majesty for the flourishing State our Church enjoys; which is inrich'd by Your Liberality, receives Lustre from Your Piety, and is the strongest Bulwark against all Your Enemies.

We repose a sure Confidence, that Your Majesty will compleat Your great Designs for the Prosperity of all Your Subjects, by securing to them an uninterrupted Commerce, so earnestly wished for.

May the Almighty Arbiter of War and Peace so calm the Minds of all Your People, that there may be no other Emulation among them, but in all Acts of steady Loyalty, (the only sure Basis for a lasting Felicity) who shall shew himself the best Subject to the best Queen, are the most ardent and daily Prayers of us Your Majesty's most obediently devoted Subjects and Servants.

The following Address from the Town and Port of Whitehaven, in the County of Cumberland, was presented to Her Majesty.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Merchants, Masters and Owners of Ships, and other Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Whitehaven, in the County of Cumberland.

Most Dread Sovereign!

YOur Majesty's most gracious Speech to both Houses of Parliament, in relation to a General Peace, with their humble Addresses of Thanks thereupon, have given such entire Satisfaction to all Your truly loyal Subjects, that we want Words to express the Gratitude of our Hearts, for so much Condescension and Goodness as Your Majesty has been graciously pleased to manifest to Your People.

And as we of this remote Sea-Port, doubt not (after all the Burthen we have cheerfully born, and the great Losses we have sustain'd in a tedious War) to share in the common Benefit intended to Britain, by the enlargement of Trade and Commerce, after the Establishment of Peace; so we should be wanting to our selves, as well as undutiful and ungrateful to Your Majesty, if we did not upon this happy Occasion, (with the rest of Your loyal Addressors in the best manner we are able) express our entire Satisfaction and Confidence in Your Majesty's great Wisdom and Conduct in that Affair, and return our most hearty Thanks for those inestimable Blessings of Peace, and other Advantages which Your Majesty (at the Head of the Treaty where You ought to be) is endeavouring to procure for Your Subjects, and for the general Good of all in Alliance with Your Majesty.

May the God of Peace, who maketh Wars to cease in all the World, whose Vice-Gerent You are, and who hath vested Your Sacred Majesty with the indisputable Authority of making Peace and War, enable Your Majesty and Your truly British Ministry, to perfect that good Work (so well begun) to the Confusion and Disappointment of all the artful Designs and Contrivances of the People that delight in War, who would obstruct the same; who being once convinced of their Perverseness and Obstinacy, under a happy Constitution of Government both in Church and State, and a gentle Administration thereof, may become loyal and grateful Subjects, to a most Gracious and Indulgent Queen.

And may Your Majesty long live in all Health and Happiness (after seeing such a Conversion) and Reign in the Hearts and Affections of an united, loyal People, who have no sinister Reserves in their Duty of Obedience.

The following Address from the Borough of Warwick, was presented to Her Majesty by the Honourable Dodington Grevile, Esq; One of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Beaufort.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Warwick.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your most Dutiful and always Loyal Subjects, humbly presume to approach that Throne, from whence Your Majesty most graciously condescended to communicate to Your Subjects (that which Your Royal Ancestors held Incommunicable) the Terms of Peace You had brought France to offer.

Terms so honourable and advantageous to Your Self and Allies, that they supply the Defects of that Treaty, wherein the Interest of Religion was neglected; and of a late one, wherein the Interest of Britain was forgot.

A Peace by which the Protestant Succession in the House of Hanover, already founded on Laws, and so deeply in the Hearts of Queen and People, will be farther secured, and the Protestant Interest abroad resettled.

A Peace which extends Your Dominions into a Kingdom which would never yet suffer it self to be dismembred, and Your Subjects Commerce to the remotest, and hitherto forbidden, Parts of the World.

A Peace which gives to Your Allies what is due to them by Treaties, a Satisfaction greater than the Efforts they have made, could reasonably demand, and a Security (if they have no other Views) perfectly safe against any Enterprize of France.

That Your Majesty may Survive and Surmount the Envy of those who would have the Glory, but chiefly the Advantage of these Negotiations, and the artful Impedients of those who would rise by, or support their acquired Grandeur, or who can think themselves safe only in the Confusions of War.

That

That You may happily and ſpeedily accompliſh this great and good Work, have the Honour now, and very late, the Bleſſed Reward of the Peacemaker, are the ſincere and inceſſant Prayers of Your Majeſty's moſt Faithful and Devoted Subjects.

The following Addreſs was tranſmitted from Ireland by their Excellencies the Lords Juſtices of that Kingdom, and preſented to Her Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Earl of Dartmouth, One of Her Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop and Clergy of the Dioceſſes of Down and Connor, aſſembled at a Viſitation held in Lisburn, on the 4th of June laſt.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Biſhop and Clergy of the Dioceſſes of Down and Connor, do take this firſt Occaſion with the deepeſt Senſe of Duty and Gratitude, to return your Sacred Majeſty our moſt unfeigned and hearty Thanks for the uninterrupted courſe of your Royal Favours.

Your Majeſty has not only reſtored our National Church to Her undoubted Rights of Convocation, whereof She was ſo long deprived, whilſt Her profeſſed Enemies preſumed to Act in their illegal Aſſemblies, by a pretended inherent and independent Right, but has been graciouſly pleaſed to relieve and ſupport the Clergy, by your Royal Grant of the remittal of the Twentieth Parts, and by appropriating the Firſt Fruits, to augment the Patrimony of the Church.

This is a Grant, which from the Nature, the Intent and Conſequence thereof, muſt be able to ſtand the ſtricteſt Enquiry, and can never be in danger of a re-aſſumption.

By this your Majeſty's gracious Favour, we the Clergy of this Kingdom, are better enabled to exert and to maintain our truly Primitive Principles of Obedience, againſt thoſe who have upon all Occaſions applied their Common Funds, and even Royal Bounties, to propagate the pernicious Principles of Reſiſtance.

We fervently pray, That your Majeſty's Reign may be very long and glorious; and when it ſhall pleaſe God to deprive us of ſo ineſtimable a Bleſſing, we ſhall then endeavour to diſcharge the ſame Duties, and promote the ſame Principles, under the Succeſſion of the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover.

The following Addreſs from the City of Litchfield, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Richard Dyott and John Coates, Eſqs; their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Leeds, their Recorder.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Bailiffs, Sheriffs and Citizens of Your Majeſty's Ancient and Loyal City of Litchfield.

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, being deeply ſenſible of the great Bleſſings we enjoy under Your Majeſty's wiſe Adminiſtration, do with the utmoſt Gratitude acknowledge Your Majeſty's great Condeſcenſion in communicating to Your People the Terms on which a Peace may be made; the concluding as well as beginning War being Your Majeſty's undoubted Prerogative.

We entirely rely on Your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Prudence in perfecting this great Work, notwithſtanding all the Arts thoſe, who delight in War, make uſe of to obſtruct it.

Your Majeſty's Zeal for the Intereſt of Your own Kingdoms, the ſecuring and enlarging our Trade to Countries it had never been before extended to, raiſes the utmoſt Joy and Gratitude in Your faithful Subjects.

May Your Majeſty long live to ſee the Fruits of a glorious Peace, and after a long and peaceable Reign over us, may You tranſmit Your Kingdoms to thoſe who are by Law appointed to ſucceed You.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Dorcheſter, was preſented to Her Majeſty by William Harvey, Eſq; being introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Bolingbroke, One of Her Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, High-Steward, Bailiffs, Aldermen, Burgeſſes, Common-Council, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Dorcheſter in the County of Dorſet.

MADAM,

YOur Majeſty's great Zeal for the Good of Your Subjects, Your earneſt purſuit of a Peace ſo advantageous for them, and ſafe for Your Allies; Your many gracious Expreſſions of a tender Affection for Your People, and the manifeſt Effects of it in Your Majeſty's more eſpecial Care and Concern for the Succeſſion, in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover, and laſting Security of the Church of England, as by Law Eſtabliſh'd, have inſpired all Your Honeſt and Loyal Subjects with the utmoſt Senſe of Gratitude and Veneration for Your Royal Perſon, and obliged them not only to implore the Divine Aſſiſtance, to enable Your Majeſty to finiſh this good Work, but to contribute their own Endeavours, by diſcountenancing all ſuch factious and uneaſie Spirits, as ſeem ſo far to delight in War; as not to conſider the many Bleſſings of Peace, and the vaſt Expence of Blood and Treaſure, which this heavy, tho' glorious and ſucceſsful War, hath brought upon Your People.

We Your Majeſty's moſt Loyal and Obedient Subjects, do from our Hearts return Your Majeſty all poſſible Thanks for Your Royal Goodneſs to Your People, in condeſcending ſo far as to lay before their Repreſentatives the Terms of Peace; and we promiſe all dutiful and chearful Obedience, and will not ceaſe to pray to the God of Heaven, to eſtabliſh Your Throne in Peace, give Your Majeſty many happy Years to enjoy the Fruits of it, and after a long and glorious Reign over a dutiful and affectionate People here, Crown Your Majeſty with everlaſting Glory and Honour amongſt the Bleſſed above.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Great Torrington, was preſented to Her Majeſty, by Serjeant Hooper, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Poulet, Lord-Steward of Her Majeſty's Houſhold.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgeſſes, Town-Clerk, and principal Inhabitants of Your Majeſty's Antient and Loyal Borough and Town of Great Torrington, in the County of Devon.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty!

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, do in the moſt humble manner approach the Throne, and return Your Majeſty our moſt humble Thanks for Your Gracious Condeſcenſion and Goodneſs in Communicating to Your People the Terms on which a Peace (ſo much deſired by all that truly love their Country) may be made: And as it is the undoubted Prerogative of the Crown, to make Peace, or War; we cannot omit this Opportunity of expreſſing our diſlike of ſuch Practices and Principles as tend to diveſt Your Majeſty of that Power which we are

are assured You will never exert, but for the true Interest of Your People.

The Great Care Your Majesty has been pleas'd to take, that by the approaching Peace, not only the Protestant Succession after Your Majesty, may be Secured in the most Illustrious House of Hanover, but also that the Commerce and Trade of Your People may be preserved and enlarged, beyond what it hath been in any former Reigns: As it is an undeniable Instance of Your Majesty's Love and Affection to Your People, so it must strike the deepest Impressions of Gratitude and Obedience in the hearts of us, and all other Your Majesty's Loyal Subjects.

That the Divine Goodness may still continue to Guide and Direct Your Majesty, and Your Councils, and Inspire those Persons Employ'd by Your Majesty in this Great Work, with the Spirit of Wisdom and Fidelity, that they may be as Famous for making this Peace, as Your Troops have been for their Valour in the Prosecution of the War; and that Your Majesty may long Reign over us, and Triumph over Your Enemies, as well at Home, as Abroad; is and always shall be the constant Prayer of us Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

The following Address from the County of Hertford, was presented to Her Majesty by Ralph Freeman and Thomas Halsey, Esqs; their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Salisbury, Lord-Lieutenant of the said County.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant, Justices of the Peace, Clergy, Gentlemen, Grand-Jury, and Freeholders Assembled at the General Quarter Sessions held at Hertford, this 14th Day of July 1712. for the County of Hertford.

May it please Your Majesty!

WE beg Leave to Address Your Majesty with Hearts full of the Joy which all True English-Men conceive at the approach of a Peace, so Honourable and Advantageous to Your People, and Transacted in a manner so Glorious to Your Majesty.

As Your Majesty has born the first and greatest part in the War, so we have now the Satisfaction to see You stand at the Head of the General Treaty for Peace, in both Conjunctures, asserting the Dignity of Great Britain, and the Honour of its Princes, by holding, as you justly ought, the Ballance of Europe.

Altho' such who owe their Conquests to Your Assistance, and even their Empire to Your Protection, should envy us our due Advantage in the Conditions of Peace; yet Your Enemies, who have felt the force of Your Arms, are ready to yield us the distinction You demand; and as a solid Security for the Performance of their Engagements, and a Pledge of their Submission to Your Majesty, have already Surrendred into Your Hands, the most Important Fortress of Dunkirk.

If there be a Faction amongst us, that would obstruct Your Glorious Endeavours for obtaining this Peace, we are assured they are only such whom no Peace would satisfie; such who have so far forgot themselves to be English-men, that they could be content to Treat for Great Britain at Second Hand, and Sacrifice the Trade, the Honour, and the Interest of their Country, to its Rivals; Men who are Restless thro' Ambition, and Turbulent by Principle, whom no Goodness nor Condescension from the Throne, can oblige to Common Respect, and Duty to it; and who never us'd the Power, entrusted to them by any Prince, but to serve themselves, and ungratefully to betray Him.

But these, we thank God, and Your Majesty, are Now few in Number, and despicable in their Power; while on the other side, we see Your Throne daily Crouded by Your Loyal Subjects, with Solemn Addresses of Thanks for the Great Blessings, You are Restoring to Your Kingdoms.

Amongst these, we beg Leave to joyn our selves with the profoundest Submission to Your Government, the most grateful sense of Your Administration, and our sincerest Prayers that Your Majesty may soon Conclude the Peace, and long Enjoy it.

The following Address from the Borough of Newbury, was presented to Her Majesty by Robert Packer, Esq; one of the Knights of the Shire for the County of Berks, being introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Viscount Bolingbroke, One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and High-Steward of the said Borough.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Burgesses, and other Principal Inhabitants of Your Majesty's Borough of Newbury in the County of Berks.

YOur Majesty's great and condescending Goodness, of which You have been pleased to give us so many and eminent Instances, particularly in Your late most gracious Speeches from Your Throne, justly calls for the greatest Returns of Duty and Acknowledgment from Your Subjects.

The prudent Advances which Your Majesty in Your great Wisdom hath already made towards the obtaining a safe and honourable Peace, oblige us to esteem it our great Happiness, that making Peace is the undoubted Prerogative of the Crown; and we hope that none, or at least none of those who are themselves to share the Benefit of so great a Blessing, will envy Your Majesty the Honour of being the Glorious Instrument of procuring it.

Your Majesty's great Care for the effectual Securing the Protestant Succession, and therein every thing that is Dear to us, the prudent Steps that You have taken for improving and enlarging our Trade, and Your Endeavours to obtain for Your Subjects some Distinction, in proportion to the Share they have born in bringing this War towards a happy Conclusion, are to us convincing Proofs that Your Majesty hath steadily, and in the first place pursued the Interest of Your own Kingdoms; and leave us no room to doubt, but that this Peace will be as safe and lasting to all Europe, as it will be honourable to Your Majesty, and advantageous to Your Subjects.

May therefore God Almighty continue to preside over Your Sacred Majesty, and Bless Your Majesty's Councils; may He long preserve that valuable Life upon which, under Him, our Happiness doth so much depend; and may He make Your Majesty as Happy in Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, as they are truly blessed in an Affectionate and Religious Queen.

The following Address from the West-Riding of the County of York, was presented to Her Majesty by the Rt. Hon. Robert Benson, Esq; Chancellor of the Exchequer.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, and other Gentlemen of the West-Riding of the County York, at the General Quarter Sessions at Bradford, the 17th of July, 1712.

WE beg Leave, most Dread Sovereign, amongst the rest of Your Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, to take this our first Opportunity of making our most grateful acknowledgments to Your Majesty, for Your Gracious Condescension in laying before Your Parliament the Terms Your Majesty, by Your great Wisdom and Courage, and the Vigilance of Your Ministry, has forced France to Consent to, for the grounding a General Peace upon.

Terms

Terms that have occaſioned the greateſt Joy to all that rightly conſider and wiſh for the true Intereſt of Great Britain, and that have ſurprized, and we hope ſilenced thoſe that have uſed their utmoſt endeavours to obſtruct a Deſign, which we are humbly of Opinion, will tend ſo much to the Welfare of Your own People in particular, and Your Allies in general. And it is no ſmall addition to our Joy, that Your Majeſty's Judgment of Your Enemy's Sincere Intentions has been confirmed, by his giving up Dunkirk, the ſtrongeſt Fortreſs and Bulwark of his Kingdom, into Your Majeſty's Hands.

We depend entirely on Your Majeſty to bring the Peace to an Happy and Speedy Iſſue, and are aſſured that this Trading part of Your Dominions, will in a particular manner reap the Benefits of it.

May Almighty God Bleſs Your Majeſty with Succeſs in this Great Work, and grant You long to Reign over us, to enjoy the Fruits of Peace, which will make us a truly happy People.

The following Addreſs from the City of York, was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Rt. Hon. Robert Benſon, Eſq; Chancellor of the Exchequer.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Mayor and Commonalty of the City of York.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

WE humbly preſume, with the reſt of Your Majeſty's Faithful and Loyal Subjects, to return our Sincere and hearty Thanks for Your Royal Goodneſs and Condeſcenſion, in laying before Your Parliament the Terms on which a General Peace may be made: And tho' the Allies, at preſent, ſeem not to conſent to thoſe Propoſals, yet we hope a little Time will regulate their Pretenſions in ſuch a manner, that they will Acquieſce in Your Royal Judgment, what is a proper and ſecure Ballance of Power in Europe.

We with pleaſure Contemplate Your Majeſty's repeated Aſſurances of Your Regard and Concern for the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Houſe of Hanover, and for Your Royal Protection and Countenance of the Trade and Manufactures of Your Realms; and as we have paid our Taxes with Chearfulneſs, to carry on a juſt and neceſſary War, ſo we ſhall with all Dutifulneſs and Loyalty demean our ſelves in the happy Times of Peace and Plenty, which we can't think far off, when there is a Ceſſation of Hoſtilities as well by Sea as by Land.

We further preſume to Congratulate Your Majeſty on Your Troops taking Poſſeſſion of Dunkirk; a Port, that during the Courſe of the War has ſeverely annoyed our Trade; a Fortreſs ſo remarkable for its Strength, that we think it a ſafe Pledge for the French King's making good all his Promiſes: And we truſt in Providence, that Your Majeſty's Reign will be long and proſperous over us.

The following Addreſs from the Corporation of Wigan, in the County Palatine of Lancaſter, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Sir Roger Bradſhaigh, Bart. one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace Duke Hamilton, Lord-Lieutenant of the ſaid County.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Burgeſſes of the Corporation of Wigan, in the County Palatine of Lancaſter.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE beg Leave to tender our moſt humble and dutiful Acknowledgments to Your Majeſty, for Your great Condeſcenſion and Confidence in Your People, manifeſted by Communicating to Your two Houſes of Parliament the Terms offered by France, as a Foundation on which a General Peace may be made.

After Your Majeſty's repeated Declarations of Your Concern for aſſuring a Proteſtant Succeſſion to theſe Kingdoms, we cannot doubt of your taking the proper meaſures for Security thereof.

'Tis with Pleaſure we view the near proſpect of a Solid and Laſting Peace ſecured, by fixing a real Ballance of Power in Europe, having made that Family a Ballance to it ſelf for the time to come, which for an Age paſt, has threatned to overbear the reſt.

A Peace Honourable to Your Majeſty, by preſiding and having the direction thereof; Juſt to all Your Allies, by procuring what Your Engagements or their reaſonable Satisfaction requires, and endear'd to Your People by the Security, Territory and diſtinguiſhing Advantages gained for Eſtabliſhing, Improving and Extending the Britiſh Commerce.

We will hope no oppoſition or obſtructions can bring the diſhonour upon Your Majeſty, and Your Kingdoms, to follow rather than guide in the Negotiations.

For we reſt confident in Your Aſſurances, that nothing ſhall move You from ſteadily purſuing the true Intereſt of Your People.

We pray Your Majeſty to perfect that great Work Your Piety and Prudence hath ſo well formed, and ſo far advanced.

And we beg leave to aſſure You, that to the utmoſt of our Power, we will Aſſiſt and Support Your Majeſty in all Difficulties You may meet with in the proſecution of ſo good a Deſign.

All which Addreſſes Her Majeſty receiv'd very Graciouſly.

Coire, July 21. N. S. Letters from Arraw bring Advice, that a Project of Peace is ſigned by the Deputies of thoſe Cantons, whoſe Intereſt being oppoſite to each other, in relation to the Affairs of Tockembourg, have for ſome time carried on a War in Switzerland. The Deputies of Zurich, Berne, and Lucern ſigned without Reſtriction, but the others conditionally, that their Principals approved it; and in order to which they deſired leave to go home, promiſing to return by the Fifteenth Inſtant with their Maſters Reſolution. This was granted; but upon the Day appointed only the Deputies of Uri came back, which gave occaſion to Conjecture that the Cantons of Lug, Switz, and Underwald had refuſed to conſent to the Peace upon the Terms propoſed. Thoſe of Zurich and Berne are extreamly diſſatisfied with this proceeding, and have given notice, that they will be kept no longer in Suſpenſe, upon any pretence whatsoever. Whereupon the Deputies of Lucern and Uri have declared, their Instructions are positive to ratifie the Peace; and that they lament the Misfortune of the other three Cantons, who cannot consent to it, because the People at present are at some Difference among themselves; notwithstanding which they engage within three Days to give their final Resolution.
